Guest Speaker: Thomas O'Toole, Ed.D

Tom O'Toole has worked at Essex North Shore as the Assistant Superintendent of Curriculum, Instruction, & Assessment since 2015, bringing more than 25 years of experience as a teacher, counselor, and content director. He has served as the ELA Lead Developer for all the MCAS English Language Arts tests for the Massachusetts Department of Elementary and Secondary Education, and as a Director of School Partnerships for Project PACE [Performance Assessment Collaboratives for Education] at the Harvard Graduate School of Education responsible for offering PreK–12 teacher training in all content areas through the Massachusetts Performance Assessment Program. He has also served as Chief Reader for the MCAS ELA Composition Scoring Institutes throughout the state.

Tom has provided content and pedagogy training, workshop facilitation, and graduate instruction to counselors, including his current work with Writing With Colors, an award-winning writing development program that benefits students of all ability levels. At Essex North Shore, Tom directs the teachers, and curriculum and assessment development for all academic programs, ensuring that school curricula are aligned to the respective Massachusetts curriculum frameworks.

Prior to working at Essex North Shore, Tom was the K–12 Director of English and Drama for the Waltham Public Schools. In addition, he has taught English and writing at Phillips Andover Academy, Boston College High School, Haverford School, and worked with special education students at The Holden School in Charlestown, MA, where he also served as a counselor. At Waltham High School, Tom co-taught screenwriting.

Tom O'Toole holds a doctorate in writing development theory from Northeastern University, along with two master's degrees: a Master of Arts in Counseling Psychology from Boston College; and a Master of Arts in Teaching English from Brown University, where he was named a National Endowment for the Humanities Fellow. He completed his Bachelor of Arts in English at Boston College. He is a member of the Association of Supervision and Curriculum Development, the National Council of Teachers of English, American Psychological Association, and the Massachusetts Council for Social Studies.
